The Colorado Assembly of Daughters of the King held their retreat at Cathedral Ridge, a new retreat center about 20
miles from Colorado Springs April 29-May 1, 2011. The theme was "A Pilgrimage of the Heart, the Journey Inward" and the speaker was Toni Stone.

Grace and St. Stephens in Colorado Springs and St.
Gregory's in Littleton are
reactivating their DOK

The Colorado Assembly
Annual Spring Retreat will be the Rockies.

Iowa:

St. Mary Magdalene Chapter
was instituted at Christ Church,
Cedar Rapids on Oct. 30th.

The Rev. Martha Rogers, the priest at Christ Church, has offered to help lead retreats –

Two or three unaffiliated daughters at Grace Church are interested in meeting with the
New Chapter at Christ church.

The Iowa spring retreat will be April 28th in Ames .The theme
will be "Being Transformed."

Minnesota:

We have one chapter in Minnesota that is " resting" due to some deaths and severe illness, and an inquiry from Christ Church, Red Wing about forming a new chapter there. I hope we can follow through in the spring after the new rector
has a chance to get acclimated.

Montana:

We have a chapter in Great Falls
that is active. It has an annual Advent quiet day and soup luncheon to which all DAL in Montana are invited.

Nebraska:

(Newly elected officers with Lyn)

Leslie Stramel, Suzanne Titus,
Tammy Lassen, Lyn Zolman

Nebraska Daughters met in Cozad on June 11, 2011.

In Nebraska, Women's Ministries and Daughters of the King work together. Their Mission 2 year goal was to make 40 sets of altar linens to give to churches in the Dominican Republic. Sandra Squires and a friend took them to the Dominican Republic and trained people to use them. Two more sets were sent to Sudan. They now have a new mission to send products to Sudan to make washable sanitary products for women in Sudan so they do not have to be sequestered during their menses.

A new chapter has been instituted at St. Andrews in Omaha. There is an opportunity in Scotts Bluff to form 1 or 2 chapters.

They have several chapters that are "resting" due to health issues with spouses.

The Nebraska spring gathering June 9, 2012

The new Bishop, Scott Barker, was installed in October.

North Dakota:

North Dakota has suffered severe flooding this past summer. Many people have been out of their homes for lengthy periods of time and when returning have found severe damage due to mold and water damage. The chapter in Jamestown fell apart.

The Diocesan Convention was October 29-30. Lee Ball tried to generate interest in Daughters of the King.

The Rev. Michael Horn at St. George's in Bismarck is supportive of Daughters but women did not want to commit to a twelve week study. Lee Ball posts Cross+Links on bulletin boards in her church.

Wyoming:

April 29-May 1, 2011 the Wyoming Daughters had a combined ECW retreat at St. Mark's in Casper. Phyllis Tickle was the speaker.

The 2012 Spring Conference will be April 20-21. Jill Smylie, the wife of the Bishop will be the speaker. The theme: "The Way I Was Made."

Triennial News

Location:

Indianapolis Marriott East

Dates: June 27 – July 1, 2012

Description of Logo

The cross represents Jesus, the heart expresses love—but it is Christ's love we seek to spread, so the heart has the alpha omega symbol. The raised hands express a posture of looking to Christ to both to receive and to give away His redeeming love. The circle behind the cross reminds us that God loves the world—not just the part where we live—and calls us to spread the love of Jesus far and wide.

Province VI Daughters who are standing for National Council

Ann Holmes

Ann is currently serving on National Council as the Royal Cross Editor. She is from Steamboat Springs, Colorado. She has chosen to stand for another term on council. During her term she lowered the mailing costs by changing the dimensions of the Royal Cross and finding a new publisher who prints and mails the magazine. Many daughters have commented on the convenience of the smaller dimensions.

Annamarie Delgado

After graduating university Annemarie joined the U.S. Army as a Finance Officer and 22 years later on 31 August 2011 retired from her career and moved back to Wyoming. She attends Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Gillette and maintains close ties to Church of the Good Shepherd in Sundance where she plans to live in the future. While stationed in Germany she inquired about a newly formed DOK chapter there. In November 2004 she took her vows as a Daughter with the newly installed chapter in Heidelberg, Germany! "DOK has been a wonderful way for me to share my faith walk with others who are also committed to a lifetime journey with God."

As a result of her life experience and significant travels, Annemarie recognizes that her faith has strengthened and she can more easily share God's love with people of many cultures. During her deployment to Iraq in 2010 Annemarie found many unique opportunities to share her faith with others. She has written an article in the Royal Cross about the activities of Daughters in that area of the world. You can read it in the Winter 2011 Royal Cross on page 29.

Please encourage your chapter to send a delegate to Triennial so we can support our Province VI Daughters who are standing for national council. It is also a wonderful opportunity for world- wide fellowship.

Province VI Goals

Being a Community of Daughters with emphasis on Prayer, Service and Evangelism

Empowering our diverse ministries.

Being a communication link.

Building and strengthening a sense of community and fellowship.

National Council

Our National Council meeting we held in Indianapolis, Indiana at the Marriott East. This is the location of our 2012 Annual Gathering. The council worked very hard from Wednesday – Saturday. We worshiped, worked, prayed, and played. Some of us arrived early to work on plans for our Triennial so we could report to the council. We all gathered at dinner on October....We met from Thursday morning – Saturday with 15 to 20 minute breaks. During one of the breaks we managed to take some of the following pictures so you could see the wonderful venue we have for our 2012 Triennial Gathering.

Rose Bailey, Eva Romero and Metro Griffith

Phyllis Larson test tasting a breakfast menu.

Bishop Romero and president, Grace

Phyllis Easley testing the treadmill

Some National Council members in the garden courtyard with Henry, the Lobby Ambassador at the Marriott East. Henry is a spark!

More of the courtyard. It is a beautiful place to relax.

Relaxing in the suite with the newspaper which is delivered daily. The bed folds up into the wall for more space.

Fun and games night. Can you guess what kind of machine this is?

Notes from National Council

Whether or not you attend DOK Triennial 2012 in Indianapolis our national council needs to be surrounded in your prayers before, and during the Triennial Retreat.

Pray at your chapter meetings

You can set up Prayer Vigils.

You can make up your own prayers.

(The following prayer was compiled by Marge Rogers. I hope each Daughter will pray it throughout this coming year.

Dear Heavenly Father, here we are in your presence, giving You the praise and glory that belongs to You only. As we quiet our minds, we listen for the still, quiet voice of the Holy Spirit. Christ Jesus, speak to us, inspire us and encourage us. Give us the strength of your love for the tasks and decisions before us and may your mercy guide us into a future full of hope.

We offer up our prayers for peace throughout the world. May we show love and compassion to all people and bring your word to those who do not know Jesus as their Savior.

We pray for guidance and care for our National Council, for the Executive Board, Council Chairs, Province Presidents, Off-council Representatives, and our National Office Staff.

We pray for all Daughters, Jr. Daughters, International Daughters, Chaplains, and guests who will attend the Triennial. We pray for the hotel staff and travel attendants.

We pray for those Daughters who have served before us to give The Order a plan and purpose to bring others to Christ. We pray for Daughters using their leadership skills in DOK chapters, Diocesan and Provincial Assemblies. May we raise up future leaders of the National Council according to your plan. You know how you want us to continue in this Order and we pray for your plan to be fulfilled. We pray for God's Greatest Good.

We offer prayers for the General Convention of the Episcopal Church. Cover Presiding Bishop Katharine and the House of Bishops, Bonnie Anderson and the House of Deputies with your grace and love as they prepare the work for your church. In these hard times your work needs to be done with more hands and combined resources. May your people rise to this endeavor.

We give praise for all You have given us to make our lives stronger and more fulfilled. May we do the work you have prepared us to do.

All this we ask in your name and For His Sake. Amen
